

7 Fields, 7 Calls to Prayer

September 2025 Focus: South Sudan

Field Overview

EFM, in partnership with EFC-Rwanda, is preparing to launch a new field in South Sudan—one of the world's youngest and most fragile nations, now slowly rebuilding after decades of war and trauma. There is a deep spiritual hunger among its people and a desire for peace, stability, and transformation. Our Rwandan Friends are leading this work and bring a powerful testimony of healing and reconciliation that uniquely positions them to minister in South Sudan. Together, we hope to see whole-life discipleship take root and expand the reach of the gospel across this nation.

Prayer Requests

- Pray that the Lord of the Harvest would send EFM workers and more EFC-Rwanda workers to join a team of missionaries.
- Pray for EFC-Rwanda as they send Nicodeme and Annoinciatha Basebya in 2025 amidst fundraising challenges while many churches are closed across the country.
- Pray for peace in South Sudan and safety for missionaries as they begin to immerse into communities for language learning and bonding.

HELP WANTED
at EFM

EFM is looking for individuals and families who are willing to serve in supportive roles on a multinational missionary team led by Rwandan leaders. We are especially seeking those with skills in business, farming, education, health and hygiene, and practical trades who are humble, flexible, and eager to empower others.

Ideal team members will embrace a posture of listening and collaboration, helping build bridges across cultures as they model and mentor whole-life discipleship.
